

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE PRODUCTS FROM THIS WEEK!

Welcome Bag

---

- Sisal Tote from Clhei – based in Maui, sisters Heidi and Emily Swift design accessories combining their appreciation for high-quality and uncomplicated craftsmanship, with a love for travel. They are full believers in conscious consumption, buying fewer but higher quality products that will last. Their bags are produced in a small, family run factories in Heidi's hometown in Argentina.
- PLT Golf Quarter Zips – PLT is a charity focused apparel company based in the Pacific Northwest. They currently give back 10% of their revenue or 50% of the profit (whichever is greater) from each sale to deserving charities like First Responders Children's Foundation, First Tee, Humane Society, and Green Beret Foundation to name a few. They put together thoughtful collections for on and off the golf course for any lifestyle and leisure environment – including transitioning seamlessly into a corporate office environment.
- HItrate Electrolytes – multi-sport athlete, MJ, was born and raised on the Big Island and she understands the vital role of hydration and recovery. HItrate Electrolytes is a refreshing hydration solution crafted in Hawaii, delivering standout tropical flavors without necessary additives.
- Maui Vera Sunscreen & After Sun Gel – Maui Vera Mineral sunscreen is a clean, conscious choice for sun protection, crafted with organic ingredients and powered by uncoated zinc oxide to deliver broad-spectrum UVA/UVB defense. Reef-friendly, and cruelty-free, it reflects Maui Vera's dedication to protecting both skin and the environment. Maui Vera is proud to support the Pacific Cancer Foundation to advance skin cancer awareness and safeguard Hawaii's delicate reef ecosystems.
- Founders Club Playing Cards – designed by the Brighton Jones' Art Director, Aaron Grable, enjoy using these playing cards during some of your downtime this week, and as a memento as a reminder of the trip back home.

- Puka Shell Bracelets – Puka means “hole” in Hawaiian and these little beads are formed naturally from cone shells and years of polishing from the surf. Our Island Heritage, with Hawai'i based parent company, the Madden Corporation, has been sharing Aloha since 1984 through the art of gift-giving.
- The Liko Baby Bucket Hat – a small family business operating out of their home in Manoa, Hawai'i, they launched at the end of 2020 and their family experiment has grown in ways they never imagined.